The International Student Orientation is mandatory for all new international students studying at Norwich University. The orientation covers important academic, cultural and immigration information and is designed to help a new international student adjust to studying at a university in the United States. Students must attend the multi-day orientation based on their lifestyle and student status. Please read the orientation schedule below.

I acknowledge that I am required to attend the following orientation based on my lifestyle and student status -

- International Recruit Orientation - Arrival Day (Wednesday, August 17, 2016),
Orientation (Thursday, August 18 - Saturday, August 20, 2016)
- Civilian International Student Orientation - Arrival Day (Saturday, August 20, 2016),
Orientation (Sunday, August 21 - Tuesday, August 23, 2016)
- Exchange Student Orientation - Arrival Day (Wednesday, August 24, 2016)
Orientation (Thursday, August 25 - Saturday, August 27, 2016)

Upon completion of the International Student Orientation recruits and civilian students will transition into their respective Norwich orientations with their peers in the class of 2020. Students will receive information on their inclusive orientation directly from Norwich University. Exchange students will not receive an additional orientation from Norwich University.
